Team did not perform to its full potential and one bad game against Bangladesh was responsible for the early exit of Indian Team from the World Cup-2007. The BCCI holds the poor performance to be the collective responsibility of the whole team.

(c) and (d) To ensure better performance of the Indian Cricket Team, the Board of Control for Cricket in India had organized a brainstorming session at which former cricket captains were invited and, in consequence, several measures have been taken which include intensive training inputs in different aspects of the game; norms in terms of minimum level of participation in domestic competitions; encouraging young potential players, etc.
